In the claims:

Please amend claim 1, as follows:

a) --1. (Amended) A breakaway assembly for use in combination with a fuel dispenser apparatus comprising a fuel dispenser unit, a coaxial hose connected thereto, and terminating in a fuel delivery nozzle, the hose defining [at least] a first, outer fuel conduit for delivery of fuel from the dispenser unit to the nozzle, for filling a vehicle tank, and a second, inner vapor conduit, coaxial with said first, outer fuel conduit, for vacuum flow of vapor displaced from the vehicle tank, said breakaway assembly disposed between a first segment of the hose attached to the dispenser unit and a second segment of the hose terminating in the nozzle,
